Plans are well underway for next school year. A key component of that planning is staffing. I am pleased to report that at this juncture our current staff will be returning next year, with a few exceptions.

As of right now, the following staff members will be leaving us:

- Mrs. Debbie Liuzza, 1st grade assistant teacher, who is retiring
- Ms. Ximena Lopez, Spanish teacher, who has accepted a position at the University of New Orleans
- Ms. Sue Mechlin, PreK 4 assistant, who is pursuing other opportunities

Please join me in offering prayers of thanksgiving and well wishes for those leaving us. They will be greatly missed.

As of right now, the following staff members will be joining us:

- Mr. Warren Irwin, B.A., M.A.T., formerly of St. Mary Magdalen School, will be joining us a Health and Physical education teacher and will also be athletic director
- Ms. Mary Koppel, B.A., M. Div., will be our Spanish Teacher
- Miss Madison Someillon, B.S., Northeastern State University, and SES Class of 2012, will be joining us as a 3rd grade teacher
- Mrs. Janette Todd, B.S., Loyola University, will be joining us as an assistant teacher

As of right now, the following adjustments are being made among current staff:

- Mrs. Billie Keelen, Computer Science & Testing teacher, will also serve (as needed) as an assistant teacher.
- Mr. Mark Larkin, H/PE teacher and Extended Care Co-Director, will serve as Extended Care Director and as a substitute.
- Miss Aimee Schroeder, current grade 3 teacher, will be a PreK3 teacher.
- We also will be making some adjustments in assignments and duties for some of our assistant teachers.
